Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 1300 hrs

There are approximately 50-100 people on Parliament Hill and a further 800-1,000 people on Wellington, Elgin, Rideau and Sussex. Our geographical boundaries remain unchanged.

The deployment of joint OPS, RCMP and OPS members continue in the core. They are being supported by POU and PLT units. Traffic resources have been conducting some enforcement when not supporting response to the incoming convoys or traffic impacts from the various counter protests.

The crowds at the War Memorial remain relatively consistent at 20-30 people through the day. There have not been any reported incidents.

The counter protest on the street at 474 Elgin has since concluded. There is an allegation one counter protestor was nudged by a vehicle but no injuries. The incident has been reported and is being investigated. Protestors have since returned to 474 Elgin and are remaining on the sidewalk.

The counter protest at Riverside and Bank St is ongoing. A group of the convoy vehicles from Coventry has been stuck in traffic and unable to attend the core. FLD has removed most resources from this call. QRT, PLT and some members of POU have attended the scene and are working with both groups. The counter protests are approximately 50-60 people with signs indicating they want their streets back.

NCRCC is monitoring a potential march of protestors from Zibi on the Quebec side to Parliament Hill.
